

Canadian Museum of Nature Visitor Agreement

Your safety is our top priority. The Canadian Museum of Nature is committed to providing our employees and guests with a safe and healthy environment at all times. As the museum reopens to the public, we are taking additional steps to minimize potential risks and to keep all our spaces safe for visitors to enjoy.

All visitors entering the museum agree to respect the following guidelines:

I AGREE TO...

- Stay home if I
 - am experiencing symptoms of COVID-19, as described by public-health authorities (self-assessment tool: <https://ca.thrive.health/covid19/en>)
 - have travelled outside Canada within the past 14 days
 - have come into close contact with, or provided care for, someone who may have COVID-19, within the last 14 days
 - have been in close personal contact with someone who has travelled outside Canada, within the last 14 days, and who has become ill with COVID-19 symptoms.
- Respect physical distancing by keeping two metres away from others outside my group, in all areas of the museum.
- Wear a face mask during my visit, and ensure that children age two and older wear face masks too. (Some exceptions apply).
- Keep my family/group together when walking through the museum, and keep children within reach at all times.
- Follow and respect route-markers in galleries and throughout the museum.
- You may bring food to eat in the designated eating areas.
- You may bring a water bottle.
- All drinking fountains and Nature Café will be closed.
- Follow directions from a museum employee or security-team member.

Thank you for helping to keep all of us safe! We, in turn, commit to providing a safe experience.

Please note that we are following rigorous health-and-safety guidelines to keep you safe, but there is an inherent risk of exposure to COVID-19 in any public place where people are present. By visiting the Canadian Museum of Nature, you voluntarily assume the risks related to exposure.

The museum maintains the right to enforce this visitor agreement. Failure to follow these directions may lead to corrective action, which may include refusal of entry or removal from the museum.
